TO BID UNDERSTANDINGLY, THIS MUST BE READ CAREFULLY.

Coins and medals are sold at so much per piece, U. S. proof sets excepted. You cannot bid for one piece in a lot. If a lot contains ten pieces, and you desire to offer $2 for it, make your bid 20c. The auctioneer will accept an advance of 1 cent up to 50c., then 5c. up to $2.50, when 10c. is the limit, up to $10, and thereafter not less than 25c. Hence any bid up to 50c. can be entertained, but after that the bid must be 55c., 60c., and so on. Such offers as 53c., $1.01, and all intermediate figures are unavailable.

My terms for buying are 10%, and I make no charge less than 25 cents.

CATALOGUE.

A COLLECTION OF COUNTERSTAMPED COPPER COINS.

THE pieces under this head were drawn together during my management of the Coin Department of the Scott Stamp & Coin Co., between the years 1886 and 1896. As I believe it to be the most extensive collection of the kind ever made in this country, I am unwilling to let it pass from my control, and be severed from the residue of their stock of coins still unsold, without a word on the subject, however meagre my observations may be; indeed, it seems a duty I owe to the science, briefly at least to mention a few of the results of the study of these pieces.

I think nearly all may be regarded as pieces of necessity, thus possessing more than common interest, and while they can hardly be classed as a "neglected series," it is safe to assert that students have not probed the subject either often or deeply; indeed, at this moment I do not recall a single authority who deals with the topic separately. There may be obstacles in the way of research, and the subject be less inviting, by reason of the lack of ready — even the commonly found "near-by" — information. Nevertheless, I challenge the citation of another series parallel in point of historical and general interest, longevity of system or practice, in a certain uniformity in diversity, and, I might add, for their enigmatical and even dumb representations, as well as for the little that has been deciphered and recorded concerning them.

IN RELIEF ON OFFICIAL COINS.

1 The names of original countries or places of issue are given; in most cases, the counterstamp is the work of the first issuer, for one or more of the following purposes: a re-issue; a change of value; an endorsement by a succeeding reign; a stamp of genuineness, to distinguish the piece from prevailing counterfeits, and sometimes for circulation in neighboring cities or provinces, or again, for colonial use. In describing those which follow, the counterstamp is given after name of place, with an occasional explanation: Cayenne, CS. a crown, for St. Bartholomew; Brazil, M for Maranhao; Scotland, a heart and star, the badge of James, Earl of Morton; Groningen, its own arms; another with the bundle of arrows, five times impressed, for all the provinces; Overyssel, Utrecht, Loos, Poland, Riga, the last two with open hand, (and I do not believe it the Antwerp member); France, a fleur-de-lis (two on base coins), another with half-eagle and figure 8 in crowned shield; Spain, various CS. of mints, values and dates, chiefly of the time of Phil. IV; Dortmund, an eagle, its own arms; Mayence, Gate token, CS. R–F, showing it to be under the first French Republic; Hanover, Hervord, Lippe, Munster, Osnabruck, a wheel, the city arms; Paderborn, monograms of succeeding Bishops; Ravensberg, Chemnitz, Soest, a key, its own arms; Verden, VD in mon.; Weidenbruck, a wheel, its own arms; Hungary, the Madonna; Lucca, Modena, Papal (1590, with Jerusalem cross); Venice, the lion of St. Mark; Candia, Malta, Turkey, Tunis, etc., 16th to 19th century; most of the earlier. 58

IN RELIEF ON U. S. CENTS.

2 1794 to 1854, mostly early, few after 1836. Merchants' names. Five have towns added to name. Lowell, New York, Sutton, Phila. It is presumed some of these were merely advertisements (wherein do they in this respect differ from store cards?) but I believe that the greater portion were so impressed in the attempt to control their circulation, where small change was scarce, and thus prevent them from passing beyond a certain area or limit. In the case of Foreign (vide lot 5) it may be interpreted as a guarantee for its goodness, practically a pledge or promise to redeem. The introduction of store cards, Hard Times Tokens, etc., and the period they mark, seems to warrant this view of their time and use. Those with the larger letters and designs and coarser work, with depressions having a serrated border, I believe to have been used in some of the West India Islands and the more northern countries of South America. 49

3 As last, with initials only, and generally with the larger letters and coarser work, as previously mentioned; probably some are for Mexican haciendas; mostly on early Cents, many between the years 1794 and 1816. 50

4 Others, various, on Colonials, Hard Times Tokens, and Half Cents; names and initials, including D. MUNSON on a Cent and Half Dime. 22

5 On Foreign Copper Coins. Names and addresses; Rothsay Mills, Deanston Cotton Mills, etc. Pennies (2), Halfpennies (7). 9

6 Others; names without addresses. 8

7 As last; initials and monograms, class of work similar to preceding. All Halfpennies. 42

8 As last; Penny size (11), Halfpenny (1). 12

9 Farthing size; initials, monograms, and some names. 24

10 Unknown head on Talbot, A. & Lee; rev. of rare Conder token; head of Napoleon on 5c., 1st Rep.; unknown head on Cent of 1817; heads of Washington and Lafayette on Cent of 1823, in commemoration of Lafayette's last visit to the United States; mtd horseman on Austrian 6 Krzr., 1800; rude human figure, A P below, on Krzr., 1762. All in relief excepting Cent of 1817. 6

11 Oddities. Justice, birds, dog, horse, fort, arms, etc. A remarkable and doubtless rare lot. Farthing to Halfpenny in size. 12

12 Other oddities, including 5 varying eagles on U. S. pcs. Farthing to Cent size. 49

THE INCUSED SORT.

12a J M on Mexican ¼ Rl., 1831, in brass, and rarely found without this stamp. 1

These letters are found on the silver and gold issues, 1822–33, of the M̊ mint, and are those of the Director or Mint Master, therefore, this may be regarded as an official stamp, and so published to assure the public that this brass emission was a legal coin and as good as the copper which had up to that time been exclusively used for coins below the Half Real.

13 Merchants' names and initials (mostly of last) on U. S. Half Cents. 29

14 Merchants' initials, 34 with address in full, towns, "Vote the land free," etc., including Athol, Mass., and one of Gouverneur, N. Y. (in silver). 50 are on U. S. Cents, 1797–1846. 54

15 Merchants' names in full on U. S. Cents, chiefly between 1817 and 1844. 75

16 Various Letters. Dr. G. G. Wilkins and other names in full, characters, etc. 14 on U. S., 5 on Canadian. 41

17 Unassorted duplicates of the preceding, in relief and incuse, including Rothsay Mills. 45

18 Engraved pieces. Several birth and love tokens; one of Grand Lodge of Druids, on English Twopence, Pennies, and smaller. Dates 1680–1867, though chiefly 1781–1832. 23

19 Tokens of love, birth, Masonry, and a variety of subjects, including portraits, merchants' names, etc. Mostly Halfpennies. Dates 1752, '65, '72, '79, '86, and later. A number are on English coins. Some are well executed. 61

20 Uniface impressions of copper coins, U. S., Canada, and various foreign, 18th and 19th centuries. Mint fugitives. 22

20a Another lot and varying, though not compared with the preceding. American and Foreign; mostly of the Farthing size. 33

20b Mis-struck, double struck, etc. Mostly Foreign and Holland Provinces prevail. Size chiefly as last. 29

178 U. S. Govt. Bldg., Chicago, 1893; Egerton, Earl of Bridgewater, Glastonbury Penny Token, "Pro patria et Avalonia" (some years ago erroneously attributed to Nova Scotia); Paris, 1792, 5 Sols, by Monneron Bros. Good to fine. 4

This "Avalonia" piece, a learned historian—not a numismatist—exploited in a 17-page article as having been, "there can be no doubt," a pattern coin of Lord Baltimore, struck in 1628 for his Canadian colony. Notwithstanding the absurdity of this statement, promptly denied in the American Journal of Numismatics at the time (1883), and soon identified as a local English token struck nearly 200 years later, and having reference to the "Holy Thorn" planted, according to ecclesiastical tradition, by Joseph of Arimathea at Glastonbury Abbey, England, it is still occasionally classed as a Canadian. Its scarcity and peculiar interest make it a desirable piece.

210 Copper Coins. Canada, Sou. Breton, 676, who grades it R. 2½. Fine. 1

I think this rating far too low. I have handled and carefully examined very many of this series during the past 20 years, and in that time I have possessed more "Sideviews" and "Sheaves of Wheat" than of this particular variety of the Sou Tokens. Col. Cutting and C. Wesley Price were without this number, yet they owned others that brought from $8 to $16.

WAR TOKENS.

505 W. K. Lanphear, mfr. metallic cards, Cincinnati, O., with 44 varying obvs. and revs. 17 in brass. Unc. 44

This I consider the most remarkable set of Tokens issued during the period named. Mr. Lanphear's business as a private moneyer must have been a large one, if necessity compelled him to combine or mule so many dies. It is possible, however, he did this to accommodate collectors, which I should judge, could not have been profitable.
